Adventure in the Great North Woods

Date: August 8-13, 2010

Location: Camp Huntington on Raquette Lake, Central Adirondacks

Leaders: Sanford Geffner and Scott Lembitz

Cost: $475 per person (includes meals, lodging, entry fees & equipment)

NOTE: Participants must be 17 years of age or older.

Your residence for this unique experience, Camp Huntington (originally Camp Pine Knot) in the central Adirondacks, was the first of the Adirondack Great Camps and is truly an architectural treasure. Listed as a National Historic Landmark, this facility has been administered by SUNY College at Cortland since 1949 as their Outdoor Education Center. This Center, reflecting the glory of an era where the very wealthy enjoyed a life of rustic elegance, will be your home for an exciting week of field studies, recreation and historic tours. Accommodations are dorm-style; couples can be arranged.

Activities:

Experience the wonders of the North Country as we share with you some great adventures!

- Tour the historic Camp Huntington
- Experience a nighttime Owl Prowl
- Meet rare and beautiful Old Growth Forests
- Float down a waterfall on the Bog River Flow
- Learn the ways of a northern Hardwood Forest
- Kayak to the secluded Silver Beach for a relaxing swim
- Search for elusive wildlife like Bear, Porcupine, Otter and Loon
- Canoe the Marion River and explore the world of Bogs and Swamps
- Relax the bones in a hidden woodland sauna on the shores of Raquette Lake
